

COLAVITO ARTIST DECLARATION

Everything in life is balanced by art and love. There is no symbolically pure art on planet earth like Colavito Art - show me where and now go right ahead and turn on me with absurd expectancy for all artists to be ass-kissers and humble..I don't care - again, "show me" because this is not hyperbole and I'm tired after 40 years of fighting for my place as an actual once in a lifetime original artist. I truly do not care anymore what it sounds like..I simply don't give a damn. Prove what I say is wrong because nobody can and I mean no-one. I challenge everyone everywhere to call my bluff - you can't. I am sickeningly tired of the bull from the narrow-minded. It's exhausting. I'm mortified that true artists are treated like shameless beggars looking for a handout having to PLEAD and CRAWL for support from those who collect art mostly as investments albeit there are exceptions. I reach out to whomever controls art to please care about art for mankind just like I do through my life's dedication of art for people.
